Warns Them in Special Message that Although They Defeated the Anti-Gambling Laws the Constitution Still Stands.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, April 9.-Gov. Hughes, in fighting mood, to-day chal- Affinity Brigade, same back to day to lenged the Senators to another battle on race track betting. He sent a special message to the Legislature, in which he said that although the and threatened anti-gambling bills were defeated in the Senate, the constitution of the State still stands. Then he added that the right of liberty would not long avail if the people are taught to view the constitution with contempt.

The Governor declared that he did not ask for sham moral laws, but couple, it is stated, went through a legal he did want the pretense of the Percy-Gray act ended. Next he sounded the main note of his message thus:

"I again urge you to enact appropriate legislation to abolish the ex- a surprise. They came as first cabin Boston Nationals Tuesday. Manage isting discrimination in favor of race track gambling."

So belligerent was the Governor that his words roused Senators Grady and McCarren to fury, and they called him a scold and advised that a message be sent back to him by the Senate, telling Mr. Hughes to mind his own business.

BENNINGS RACE TRACK, April 9.—The fourth race here to-day was one of the biggest betting events of the meeting. The first money to show came in on Edgely in $100 chunks, and for a while nothing else was played. Then a tip on The Clown was put in circulation and so much money poured in on him that Edgely's price went back from 6 to 5 to 12 to 5. There was wise money for Delphie and Kempton too, and the prices on these were forced down. The market was a puzzler and anywould have been mystified. It is estimating mildly to say that when the

NEW ORLEANS RESULTS.

McCarthy has lost his hoodoo. For the first time in four days he rode a winner. He had the mount on Bille Hibbs and easily landed him in front of Sugar Pine, who was second all the way. The Wrestier, well played, was third. Snoker, the favorite, was never prominent. Sugar Pine got a big play and ran a good race.

Takshine as 5.5. of Sugar Pine, who was second all the way. The Wrestler, well played, was third. Smoker, the favorite, was never prominent. Sugar Pine got a big play and ran a good race.

Takahira an Easy Winner.

Takahira went to the post as a 1 to 2 shot in the two-year-old event and won a like one, incidentally giving McCarthy his second winner. Takahira simply breezed in front from the first sixteenth and won swinging by five lengths. Helen Hills, which broke in front followed Takahira all the way to the stretch only to be beaten out in the drive by Elizabeth Sweeney. The time was fast censidering the heavy track.
